

Dempsey Family Heads Home After Kennedy Services

WASHINGTON, (UPI)—Connecticut Gov. John N. Dempsey and his family headed for home today after attending the funeral of President John F. Kennedy.

An aide said Dempsey had been scheduled to leave Monday night but decided to spend the night here.

Dempsey was among a group of governors who met Monday with President Johnson.